

KANSAS

Nationwide, COVID-19 has had a devastating impact on the arts. Thanks to historic investments, the NEA is helping the arts and cultural sector to recover, rebuild, and reopen. In 2020:

- Arts and cultural production in Kansas added 2.4% or $4.2 billion to the state's economy.
- Kansas's arts and cultural industries employed 41,280 workers. These workers earned wages and benefits totaling over $2.7 billion.

GRANTS TO THE STATE

Over a five-year period (FY 2018-2022), the NEA distributed $7,121,242 in federal funds to grant applicant organizations in this state, either directly or through state and regional partners.

The Arts Endowment awarded 62 direct grants throughout Kansas over the past 5 years, totaling $6,177,187. These direct grants included:

- The Sunflower Music Festival
- A chamber music performance by the Rastrelli Cello Quartet
- A new dance theater installation work that used technology to translate and amplify physical information of performers and audience members into changes in the lighting, sound, and set

NEA NATIONAL INITIATIVES IN THE STATE

In addition to offering direct grants, the NEA supports national initiatives benefiting people across the country. Over the past five years:

Blue Star Museums program provided free admission to thousands of active military personnel and their families at 88 participating museums in Kansas.

Poetry Out Loud program provided opportunities for an average of 896 students per year attending 51 unique high schools in Kansas to appreciate—through study, memorization, and public recitation— great poetry.

The NEA Big Read program generated 391 community events focused on reading outstanding American literature and involving more than 15,698 adults and students in Kansas.
